SUSPENDED.Faculty of University of Washington Take Summary Action to Rebuke the Offending Leader.SEATTLE (Wash.), December 12.—
"Hippity, Huckle,
Hippy, Huckle,
God Almighty,
See that tackle!"Because of the profanity in the foregoing yell Chauncy Rathbun, leader of the Rooter's Club of the University of Washington, has been indefinitely suspended from the institution by the faculty. Rathbun claims he was not treated justly, but the faculty held an opposite view. They also allege that Rathbun was hostile to the faculty. He denies the charge. President Graves says that indefinite suspension is a softer term for expulsion.According to Rathbun's story the first intimation he had of the trouble was a few days before the Thanksgiving football game. He was in the college library and the club was practicing its yell on the front steps. After it was over he met Professor Meany, who, he states, advised him to have the profanity cut out of the yell.
Rathbun declares he replied that he did not approve of profanity and later he had it changed to "Hully gee."Only a few of the rooters, it is said, accepted the change and at the football game the "profane" yell was given. After being called before a committee selected from the faculty to show cause why he should not be suspended he received the sentence. The affair has caused a big row.PUBLIC CONCERT.The band will present the following of the Hilo Tribune, published in yesterday's Star, was telephoned to the steamer Mauna Loa at Kailua, on Monday morning, December 24, just before the steamer left. The message was from Mrs. Louis Augst, who has charge of the telephone station of Kona, and who received the report direct from Hilo on the previous day. Mr. Steele was stated to have died on the previous Saturday evening, as stated in the Millions.WASHINGTON, December 12.—By the terms of the will of the late Mrs.

Washington McLean, who was probated today, Admiral Dewey, who married Mrs. Hazen, a daughter of Mrs.
McLean, can never hope to enjoy one cent of the McLean millions. And, what is more, his son cannot. Unless there be issue from the Admiral marriage with Mrs. Hazen, her share in her mother's estate will revert to the other lineal descendants of Washington Mc-Lean.The terms of the will caused much comment here today. It looks as if this is a direct thrust at Admiral Dewey, for the reason that this important provision is made in a codicil, which was there be issue from the Admiral's marriage to Mrs. Hazen. After small bequests are executed, the entire estate, valued at $2,000,000 is to be divided equally between Mrs. Dewey, Mrs. Ludlow and John R. McLean for life and to their children after their death.COOL ON MAUI.WAILUKU, December 22.—The nights
